This sound trademark is used for a jingle sound. Its motif consists of a sequence of six notes in the key of C-sharp minor. The notes are as follows: G# A E D# F# C#. They sound in two groups of three notes, both of them being ascending in pitch. Each group starts with two of sixteenth notes, followed by eighth note for first group and half note for second group. The emphasized notes of the leitmotif form a major-sixth interval: from E to C# – a bright, friendly and warm interval. The motif is played on a piano forte that has been sound designed in a distinctive way that it sounds slightly detuned. It is accompanied by a warm pad sound in F-sharp minor which provides a sensuous elegance. It precedes the piano-motif while increasing in intensity towards the end of the jingle sound.
