The trade mark is a movement mark, consisting of a sequence of four images as shown in the representations on the form of application. The entire sequence is approximately 3 seconds in duration. The sequence depicts 4 round objects aligned symmetrically in 2 rows of 2, with each round object containing an orange coloured substance in the middle. A distinctive stylized logo appears in the bottom right hand corner of the sequence and remains prominently in this position throughout the entire sequence. This logo comprises a tear-drop bubble device with the word "Joy" in a stylized font. Concurrently, the sequence shows a finger gently touching, then lifted from, the middle of each of the 4 round objects in a sequential, clockwise manner, starting from the round object at the lower right corner, to the lower left corner, then to the upper left corner, and finally to the round object in the upper right corner. A smaller white round device is formed beneath the finger in each of the four round objects as the finger has contact with the orange coloured substance. The smaller white round device beneath the finger in each of the 4 round objects expands outwards in a concentric manner sequentially, until only a thin outer ring of the orange coloured substance is left in each of the 4 round objects.
