General Information

1. Trade Marks Journal

This journal is published by the Registry of Trade Marks pursuant to Rule 86A of the Trade Marks Rules. It is published weekly on Fridays, unless otherwise directed by the Registrar.

2. Notice of Opposition

Any person who wishes to oppose any of the marks published may within two months from its publication date file a Notice of Opposition on Form TM11. Reasonable notice should be given to the Applicant beforehand, to provide the Applicant an opportunity to withdraw the application. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account when considering any application by an Opponent for an Order of Costs if the opposition is uncontested by the Applicant.

3. Practice Directions and Circulars

The Registry has ceased our practice of publishing Practice Directions and Circulars in the Trade Marks Journal. Practice Directions and Circulars are available on our website at <https://www.ipos.gov.sg>. If you wish to receive our updates via email, you may subscribe to our mailing list by sending an email to news@ipos.gov.sg and letting us know the subject matter of interest (e.g. Trade Marks).

4. Information Contained in this Journal

The Registry of Trade Marks does not guarantee the accuracy of its publications, data records or advice nor accept any responsibility for errors or omissions or their consequences. Permission to reproduce extracts from this Journal must be obtained from the Registrar of Trade Marks.

Mark Clause(s):

The mark consists of a motion mark with a cubic design that twists and turns through five separate steps, as represented from top to bottom by the five static images shown in the representation on the form of application, before returning to its original position, as represented by the first image in the representation on the form of application. The complete sequence of movement takes approximately 12 seconds, with varying transition times between each of the five images. The first image depicts the cube-shaped design isometrically positioned with three faces visible. The face to the right of the centre is shown with a concave edge at the bottom right of the image to demonstrate a twist in the shape. The cube twists upwards in a clockwise direction into the second image with the concave edge now at the top right of the image. The cube continues to twist upwards in a clockwise direction until the concave edge is at the face to the left of the centre as depicted in the third image. The cube then twists in a downwards and clockwise direction until the cube appears to be horizontally twisted as depicted in the fourth image. The cube continues to twist in a downwards and clockwise direction until it appears diagonally twisted as depicted in the fifth image.

Class 09

Electronic devices, namely, power supplies, power inverters, power shelves in the nature of power supplies, power rectifiers, and power strips for server rack installations, apparatus for conducting, regulating, and controlling electricity for plasma sources in the nature of power supplies, matching networks, and plasma chambers for use with chemical vapor deposition (CVD), power sources in the nature of radio frequency ("RF") plasma generators for producing RF power to generate and maintain plasma in CVD chambers, temperature measurement devices, temperature calibration devices for calibrating pyrometers, thermal imaging cameras, radiometers, heatflux, and spectrographic measurement systems, fiber optic temperature sensors, pyrometers, infrared thermometers, flare pilot monitors in the nature of devices for monitoring waste gas ignition system characteristics to identify failure, thermal imaging cameras, infrared cameras, power controllers, residual gas analyzers, gas sensors for measuring gas concentration, rectifiers, power adapters, power converters, DC/DC converters, digital multi-meters, match networks in the nature of variable impedance-adapting circuits, voltage amplifiers in the nature of high voltage multipliers, voltmeters, electrostatic detectors and sensors for detecting and sensing electrostatic charge buildup, instrumentation for locating static charges and measuring ionizer performance in the nature of charged plate monitors, surface/volume resistance meters, ionizers being ionization apparatus for scientific or laboratory use, ion collecting plates in the nature of electrostatic emission control devices being electrostatic precipitators for reducing particulate emission in industrial applications, electrostatic force microscopes, voltage pulse generators for testing electric current, power amplifiers, battery backup power supplies, computer hardware, and downloadable computer software and firmware for user interface functionality and back-end processing with power diagnostics, power visualization, power optimization, ventilation system coordination, gas monitoring, thermal comfort assessment, process control, process monitoring, preventive maintenance, and error detection, in industrial products and associated manufacturing, test, and control systems; electronic devices, namely, power supplies, power inverters, power shelves in the nature of power supplies, power rectifiers, and power strips for server rack installations, apparatus for conducting, regulating, and controlling electricity for plasma sources in the nature of power supplies, matching networks, and plasma chambers for use with chemical vapor deposition (CVD), power sources in the nature of radio frequency ("RF") plasma generators for producing RF power to generate and maintain plasma in CVD chambers, temperature measurement devices, temperature calibration devices for calibrating

pyrometers, thermal imaging cameras, radiometers, heatflux, and spectrographic measurement systems, fiber optic temperature sensors, pyrometers, infrared thermometers, flare pilot monitors in the nature of devices for monitoring waste gas ignition system characteristics to identify failure, thermal imaging cameras, infrared cameras, power controllers, residual gas analyzers, gas sensors for measuring gas concentration, rectifiers, power adapters, power converters, DC/DC converters, digital multi-meters, match networks in the nature of variable impedance-adapting circuits, voltage amplifiers in the nature of high voltage multipliers, voltmeters, electrostatic detectors and sensors for detecting and sensing electrostatic charge buildup, instrumentation for locating static charges and measuring ionizer performance in the nature of charged plate monitors, surface/volume resistance meters, ionizers being ionization apparatus for scientific or laboratory use, ion collecting plates in the nature of electrostatic emission control devices being electrostatic precipitators for reducing particulate emission in industrial applications, electrostatic force microscopes, voltage pulse generators for testing electric current, power amplifiers, battery backup power supplies, computer hardware, and downloadable computer software and firmware for user interface functionality and back-end processing with power diagnostics, power visualization, power optimization, ventilation system coordination, gas monitoring, thermal comfort assessment, process control, process monitoring, preventive maintenance, and error detection, within commercial products and associated manufacturing, test, and control systems; electronic devices, namely, power supplies, power inverters, power shelves in the nature of power supplies, power rectifiers, and power strips for server rack installations, apparatus for conducting, regulating, and controlling electricity for plasma sources in the nature of power supplies, matching networks, and plasma chambers for use with chemical vapor deposition (CVD), power sources in the nature of radio frequency ("RF") plasma generators for producing RF power to generate and maintain plasma in CVD chambers, temperature measurement devices, temperature calibration devices for calibrating pyrometers, thermal imaging cameras, radiometers, heatflux, and spectrographic measurement systems, fiber optic temperature sensors, pyrometers, infrared thermometers, flare pilot monitors in the nature of devices for monitoring waste gas ignition system characteristics to identify failure, thermal imaging cameras, infrared cameras, power controllers, residual gas analyzers, gas sensors for measuring gas concentration, rectifiers, power adapters, power converters, DC/DC converters, digital multi-meters, match networks in the nature of variable impedance-adapting circuits, voltage amplifiers in the nature of high voltage multipliers, voltmeters, electrostatic detectors and sensors for detecting and sensing electrostatic charge buildup, instrumentation for locating static charges and measuring ionizer performance in the nature of charged plate monitors, surface/volume resistance meters, ionizers being ionization apparatus for scientific or laboratory use, ion collecting plates in the nature of electrostatic emission control devices being electrostatic precipitators for reducing particulate emission in industrial applications, electrostatic force microscopes, voltage pulse generators for testing electric current, power amplifiers, battery backup power supplies, computer hardware, and downloadable computer software and

firmware for user interface functionality and back-end processing with power diagnostics, power visualization, power optimization, ventilation system coordination, gas monitoring, thermal comfort assessment, process control, process monitoring, preventive maintenance, and error detection, within source power conversion, measurement, and control, namely, utility source power and other energy source power; electronic devices, namely, power supplies, power inverters, power shelves in the nature of power supplies, power rectifiers, and power strips for server rack installations, apparatus for conducting, regulating, and controlling electricity for plasma sources in the nature of power supplies, matching networks, and plasma chambers for use with chemical vapor deposition (CVD), power sources in the nature of radio frequency ("RF") plasma generators for producing RF power to generate and maintain plasma in CVD chambers, temperature measurement devices, temperature calibration devices for calibrating pyrometers, thermal imaging cameras, radiometers, heatflux, and spectrographic measurement systems, fiber optic temperature sensors, pyrometers, infrared thermometers, flare pilot monitors in the nature of devices for monitoring waste gas ignition system characteristics to identify failure, thermal imaging cameras, infrared cameras, power controllers, residual gas analyzers, gas sensors for measuring gas concentration, rectifiers, power adapters, power converters, DC/DC converters, digital multi-meters, match networks in the nature of variable impedance-adapting circuits, voltage amplifiers in the nature of high voltage multipliers, voltmeters, electrostatic detectors and sensors for detecting and sensing electrostatic charge buildup, instrumentation for locating static charges and measuring ionizer performance in the nature of charged plate monitors, surface/volume resistance meters, ionizers being ionization apparatus for scientific or laboratory use, ion collecting plates in the nature of electrostatic emission control devices being electrostatic precipitators for reducing particulate emission in industrial applications, electrostatic force microscopes, voltage pulse generators for testing electric current, power amplifiers, battery backup power supplies, computer hardware, and downloadable computer software and firmware for user interface functionality and back-end processing with power diagnostics, power visualization, power optimization, ventilation system coordination, gas monitoring, thermal comfort assessment, process control, process monitoring, preventive maintenance, and error detection, within semiconductor, thin film plasma processes including industrial coating, optical coating and other coatings; Electronic devices, namely, power supplies, power inverters, power shelves in the nature of power supplies, power rectifiers, and power strips for server rack installations, apparatus for conducting, regulating, and controlling electricity for plasma sources in the nature of power supplies, matching networks, and plasma chambers for use with chemical vapor deposition (CVD), power sources in the nature of radio frequency ("RF") plasma generators for producing RF power to generate and maintain plasma in CVD chambers, temperature measurement devices, temperature calibration devices for calibrating pyrometers, thermal imaging cameras, radiometers, heatflux, and spectrographic measurement systems, fiber optic temperature sensors, pyrometers, infrared thermometers, flare pilot monitors in the nature of devices for monitoring waste gas ignition system characteristics to identify failure, thermal imaging cameras, infrared cameras, power controllers, residual gas analyzers, gas sensors for measuring gas concentration, rectifiers, power adapters, power converters, DC/DC converters, digital multi-meters, match networks in the nature of variable impedance-adapting circuits, voltage amplifiers in the nature of high voltage multipliers, voltmeters, electrostatic detectors and sensors for detecting and sensing electrostatic charge buildup, Instrumentation for locating static charges and measuring ionizer performance in the nature of charged plate monitors, surface/volume resistance meters, ionizers being ionization apparatus for scientific or laboratory use, ion collecting plates in the nature of electrostatic emission control devices being electrostatic precipitators for reducing particulate emission in industrial applications, electrostatic force microscopes, voltage pulse generators for testing electric current, power amplifiers, battery backup power supplies, computer hardware, and downloadable computer software and firmware for user interface functionality and back-end processing with power diagnostics, power visualization, power optimization, ventilation system coordination, gas monitoring, thermal comfort assessment, process control, process monitoring, preventive maintenance, and error detection, within data center, cloud computing, networking systems, and telecommunication systems; electronic devices, namely, power supplies, power inverters, power shelves in the nature of power supplies, power rectifiers, and power strips for server rack installations, apparatus for conducting, regulating, and controlling electricity for plasma sources in the nature of power supplies, matching networks, and plasma chambers for use with chemical vapor deposition (CVD), power sources in the nature of radio frequency ("RF") plasma generators for producing RF power to generate and maintain plasma in CVD chambers, temperature measurement devices, temperature calibration devices for calibrating pyrometers, thermal imaging cameras, radiometers, heatflux, and spectrographic measurement systems, fiber optic temperature sensors, pyrometers, infrared thermometers, flare pilot monitors in the nature of devices for monitoring waste gas ignition system characteristics to identify failure, thermal imaging cameras, infrared cameras, power controllers, residual gas analyzers, gas sensors for measuring gas concentration, rectifiers, power adapters, power converters, DC/DC converters, digital multi-meters, match networks in the nature of variable impedance-adapting circuits, voltage amplifiers in the nature of high voltage multipliers, voltmeters, electrostatic detectors and sensors for detecting and sensing electrostatic charge buildup, Instrumentation for locating static charges and measuring ionizer performance in the nature of charged plate monitors, surface/volume resistance meters, ionizers being ionization apparatus for scientific or laboratory use, ion collecting plates in the nature of electrostatic emission control devices being electrostatic precipitators for reducing particulate emission in industrial applications, electrostatic force microscopes, voltage pulse generators for testing electric current, power amplifiers, battery backup power supplies, computer hardware, and downloadable computer software and firmware for user interface functionality and back-end processing with power diagnostics, power visualization, power optimization, ventilation system coordination, gas monitoring, thermal comfort assessment, process control, process monitoring, preventive maintenance, and error detection, within analytical instrumentation and analytical instrumentation processes; Electronic devices, namely, power supplies, power inverters, power shelves in the nature of power supplies, power rectifiers, and power strips for server rack installations, apparatus for conducting, regulating, and controlling electricity for plasma sources in the nature of power supplies, matching networks, and plasma chambers for use with chemical vapor deposition (CVD), power sources in the nature of radio frequency ("RF") plasma generators for producing RF power to generate and maintain plasma in CVD chambers, temperature measurement devices, temperature calibration devices for calibrating pyrometers, thermal imaging cameras, radiometers, heatflux, and spectrographic measurement systems, fiber optic temperature sensors, pyrometers, infrared thermometers, flare pilot monitors in the nature of devices for monitoring waste gas ignition system characteristics to identify failure, thermal imaging cameras, infrared cameras, power controllers, residual gas analyzers, gas sensors for measuring gas concentration, rectifiers, power adapters, power converters, DC/DC converters, digital multi-meters, match networks in the nature of variable impedance-adapting circuits, voltage amplifiers in the nature of high voltage multipliers, voltmeters, electrostatic detectors and sensors for detecting and sensing electrostatic charge buildup, Instrumentation for locating static charges and measuring ionizer performance in the nature of charged plate monitors, surface/volume resistance meters, ionizers being ionization apparatus for scientific or laboratory use, ion collecting plates in the nature of electrostatic emission control devices being electrostatic precipitators for reducing particulate emission in industrial applications, electrostatic force microscopes, voltage pulse generators for testing electric current, power amplifiers, battery backup power supplies, computer hardware, and downloadable computer software and firmware for user interface functionality and back-end processing with power diagnostics, power visualization, power optimization, ventilation system coordination, gas monitoring, thermal comfort assessment, process control, process monitoring, preventive maintenance, and error detection, within medical equipment, therapeutic equipment, and diagnostic equipment; electronic devices, namely, power supplies, power inverters, power shelves in the nature of power supplies, power rectifiers, and power strips for server rack installations, apparatus for conducting, regulating, and controlling electricity for plasma sources in the nature of power supplies, matching networks, and plasma chambers for use with chemical vapor deposition (CVD), power sources in the nature of radio frequency ("RF") plasma generators for producing RF power to generate and maintain plasma in CVD chambers, temperature measurement devices, temperature calibration devices for calibrating pyrometers, thermal imaging cameras, radiometers, heatflux, and spectrographic measurement systems, fiber optic temperature sensors, pyrometers, infrared thermometers, flare pilot monitors in the nature of devices for monitoring waste gas ignition system characteristics to identify failure, thermal imaging cameras, infrared cameras, power controllers, residual gas analyzers, gas sensors for measuring gas concentration, rectifiers, power adapters, power converters, DC/DC converters, digital multi-meters, match networks in the nature of variable impedance-adapting circuits, voltage amplifiers in the nature of high voltage multipliers, voltmeters, electrostatic detectors and sensors for detecting and sensing electrostatic charge buildup, Instrumentation for locating static charges and measuring ionizer performance in the nature of charged plate monitors, surface/volume resistance meters, ionizers being ionization apparatus for scientific or laboratory use, ion collecting plates in the nature of electrostatic emission control devices being electrostatic precipitators for reducing particulate emission in industrial applications, electrostatic force microscopes, voltage pulse generators for testing electric current, power amplifiers, battery backup power supplies, computer hardware, and downloadable computer software and firmware for user interface functionality and back-end processing with power diagnostics, power visualization, power optimization, ventilation system coordination, gas monitoring, thermal comfort assessment, process control, process monitoring, preventive maintenance, and error detection, within industrial production and manufacturing systems; electronic devices, namely, power supplies, power inverters, power shelves in the nature of power supplies, power rectifiers, and power strips for server rack installations, apparatus for conducting, regulating, and controlling electricity for plasma sources in the nature of power supplies, matching networks, and plasma chambers for use with chemical vapor deposition (CVD), power sources in the nature of radio frequency ("RF") plasma generators for producing RF power to generate and maintain plasma in CVD chambers, temperature measurement devices, temperature calibration devices for calibrating pyrometers, thermal imaging cameras, radiometers, heatflux, and spectrographic measurement systems, fiber optic temperature sensors, pyrometers, infrared thermometers, flare pilot monitors in the nature of devices for monitoring waste gas ignition system characteristics to identify failure, thermal imaging cameras, infrared cameras, power controllers, residual gas analyzers, gas sensors for measuring gas concentration, rectifiers, power adapters, power converters, DC/DC converters, digital multi-meters, match networks in the nature of variable impedance-adapting circuits, voltage amplifiers in the nature of high voltage multipliers, voltmeters, electrostatic detectors and sensors for detecting and sensing electrostatic charge buildup, Instrumentation for locating static charges and measuring ionizer performance in the nature of charged plate monitors, surface/volume resistance meters, ionizers being ionization apparatus for scientific or laboratory use, ion collecting plates in the nature of electrostatic emission control devices being electrostatic precipitators for reducing particulate emission in industrial applications, electrostatic force microscopes, voltage pulse generators for testing electric current, power amplifiers, battery backup power supplies, computer hardware, and downloadable computer software and firmware for user interface functionality and back-end processing with power diagnostics, power visualization, power optimization, ventilation system coordination, gas monitoring, thermal comfort assessment, process control, process monitoring, preventive maintenance, and error detection, within material and chemical processing; electronic devices, namely, power supplies, power generators, power inverters, power shelves in the nature of power supplies, power rectifiers, and power strips for server rack installations, apparatus for conducting, regulating, and controlling electricity for plasma sources in the nature of power supplies, matching networks, and plasma chambers for use with chemical vapor deposition (CVD), power sources in the nature of radio frequency ("RF") plasma generators for producing RF power to generate and maintain plasma in CVD chambers, temperature measurement devices, temperature calibration devices for calibrating pyrometers, thermal imaging cameras, radiometers, heatflux, and spectrographic measurement systems, fiber optic temperature sensors, pyrometers, infrared thermometers, flare pilot monitors in the nature of devices for monitoring waste gas ignition system characteristics to identify failure, thermal imaging cameras, infrared cameras, power controllers, residual gas analyzers, gas sensors for measuring gas concentration, rectifiers, power adapters, power converters, DC/DC converters, digital multi-meters, match networks in the nature of variable impedance-adapting circuits, voltage amplifiers in the nature of high voltage multipliers, voltmeters, electrostatic detectors and sensors for detecting and sensing electrostatic charge buildup, Instrumentation for locating static charges and measuring ionizer performance in the nature of charged plate monitors, surface/volume resistance meters, ionizers being ionization apparatus for scientific or laboratory use, ion collecting plates in the nature of electrostatic emission control devices being electrostatic precipitators for reducing particulate emission in industrial applications, electrostatic force microscopes, voltage pulse generators for testing electric current, power amplifiers, battery backup power supplies, computer hardware, and downloadable computer software and firmware for use with temperature measurement and control of glass applications, metal applications, nonmetal applications, refineries, gas plants, petrochemicals processes, semiconductor and thin-film production, inspection of boiler tubes and furnace walls, pilot flames and flare stacks, rolling processes, rotary kilns, and glass production; electronic devices, namely, power supplies, power inverters, power shelves in the nature of power supplies, power rectifiers, and power strips for server rack installations, apparatus for conducting, regulating, and controlling electricity for plasma sources in the nature of power supplies, matching networks, and plasma chambers for use with chemical vapor deposition (CVD), power sources in the nature of radio frequency ("RF") plasma generators for producing RF power to generate and maintain plasma in CVD chambers, temperature measurement devices, temperature calibration devices for calibrating pyrometers, thermal imaging cameras, radiometers, heatflux, and spectrographic measurement systems, fiber optic temperature sensors, pyrometers, infrared thermometers, flare pilot monitors in the nature of devices for monitoring waste gas ignition system characteristics to identify failure, thermal imaging cameras, infrared cameras, power controllers, residual gas analyzers, gas sensors for measuring gas concentration, rectifiers, power adapters, power converters, DC/DC converters, digital multi-meters, match networks in the nature of variable impedance-adapting circuits, voltage amplifiers in the nature of high voltage multipliers, voltmeters, electrostatic detectors and sensors for detecting and sensing electrostatic charge buildup, Instrumentation for locating static charges and measuring ionizer performance in the nature of charged plate monitors, surface/volume resistance meters, ionizers being ionization apparatus for scientific or laboratory use, ion collecting plates in the nature of electrostatic emission control devices being electrostatic precipitators for reducing particulate emission in industrial applications, electrostatic force microscopes, voltage pulse generators for testing electric current, power amplifiers, battery backup power supplies, computer hardware, and downloadable computer software and firmware for user interface functionality and back-end processing with power diagnostics, power visualization, power optimization, ventilation system coordination, gas monitoring, thermal comfort assessment, process control, process monitoring, preventive maintenance, and error detection, within electrostatic instrumentation; electronic devices, namely, power supplies, power inverters, power shelves in the nature of power supplies, power rectifiers, and power strips for server rack installations, apparatus for conducting, regulating, and controlling electricity for plasma sources in the nature of power supplies, matching networks, and plasma chambers for use with chemical vapor deposition (CVD), power sources in the nature of radio frequency ("RF") plasma generators for producing RF power to generate and maintain plasma in CVD chambers, temperature measurement devices, temperature calibration devices for calibrating pyrometers, thermal imaging cameras, radiometers, heatflux, and spectrographic measurement systems, fiber optic temperature sensors, pyrometers, infrared thermometers, flare pilot monitors in the nature of devices for monitoring waste gas ignition system characteristics to identify failure, thermal imaging cameras, infrared cameras, power controllers, residual gas analyzers, gas sensors for measuring gas concentration, rectifiers, power adapters, power converters, DC/DC converters, digital multi-meters, match networks in the nature of variable impedance-adapting circuits, voltage amplifiers in the nature of high voltage multipliers, voltmeters, electrostatic detectors and sensors for detecting and sensing electrostatic charge buildup, Instrumentation for locating static charges and measuring ionizer performance in the nature of charged plate monitors, surface/volume resistance meters, ionizers being ionization apparatus for scientific or laboratory use, ion collecting plates in the nature of electrostatic emission control devices being electrostatic precipitators for reducing particulate emission in industrial applications, electrostatic force microscopes, voltage pulse generators for testing electric current, power amplifiers, battery backup power supplies, computer hardware, and downloadable computer software and firmware for use in gas sensing and monitoring automotive emissions, patients, greenhouse gases, freon refrigerants, carbon dioxide, sulfur hexafluoride, and ventilation systems; temperature calibration devices for calibrating pyrometers, thermal imaging cameras, radiometers, heatflux, and spectrographic measurement systems, fiber optic temperature sensors, pyrometers, infrared thermometers, flare pilot monitors in the nature of devices for monitoring waste gas ignition system characteristics to identify failure, thermal imaging cameras, infrared cameras, power controllers, residual gas analyzers, gas sensors for measuring gas concentration, rectifiers, power adapters, power converters, DC/DC converters, digital multi-meters, match networks in the nature of variable impedance-adapting circuits, voltage amplifiers in the nature of high voltage multipliers, voltmeters, electrostatic detectors and sensors for detecting and sensing electrostatic charge buildup, Instrumentation for locating static charges and measuring ionizer performance in the nature of charged plate monitors, surface/volume resistance meters, ionizers being ionization apparatus for scientific or laboratory use, ion collecting plates in the nature of electrostatic emission control devices being electrostatic precipitators for reducing particulate emission in industrial applications, electrostatic force microscopes, voltage pulse generators for testing electric current, power amplifiers, battery backup power supplies, computer hardware, and downloadable computer software and firmware for user interface functionality and back-end processing with power diagnostics, power visualization, power optimization, ventilation system coordination, gas monitoring, thermal comfort assessment, process control, process monitoring, preventive maintenance, and error detection, within power delivery, power control, power measurement, power conversion, power transformation, power refinement, power modification, and power supply systems; Electronic devices, namely, power supplies, power inverters, power shelves in the nature of power supplies, power rectifiers, and power strips for server rack installations, apparatus for conducting, regulating, and controlling electricity for plasma sources in the nature of power supplies, matching networks, and plasma chambers for use with chemical vapor deposition (CVD), power sources in the nature of radio frequency ("RF") plasma generators for producing RF power to generate and maintain plasma in CVD chambers, temperature measurement devices, power controllers, gas sensors for measuring gas concentration, rectifiers, power adapters, power converters, DC/DC converters, digital multi-meters, match networks in the nature of variable impedance-adapting circuits, voltage amplifiers in the nature of high voltage multipliers, voltmeters, electrostatic detectors and sensors for detecting and sensing electrostatic charge buildup, Instrumentation for locating static charges and measuring ionizer performance in the nature of charged plate monitors, surface/volume resistance meters, ionizers being ionization apparatus for scientific or laboratory use, ion collecting plates in the nature of electrostatic emission control devices being electrostatic precipitators for reducing particulate emission in industrial applications, electrostatic force microscopes, voltage pulse generators for testing electric current, power amplifiers, battery backup power supplies, computer hardware, and downloadable computer software and firmware for user interface functionality and back-end processing with power diagnostics, power visualization, power optimization, ventilation system coordination, gas monitoring, thermal comfort assessment, process control, process monitoring, preventive maintenance, and error detection, within the aerospace and defense systems; Integrated systems modules, namely, remote plasma sources in the nature of low-energy ion and radical generation systems for use with chemical vapor deposition (CVD) chambers and plasma generators for producing RF power to generate and maintain plasma in CVD chambers and match networks modules in the nature of in the nature of variable impedance-adapting circuits; and Downloadable software and firmware for monitoring, controlling, and analyzing power delivery systems, power control systems, power measurement systems, power conversion systems, power transformation systems, power refinement systems, power modification systems, and power supply systems; downloadable software for providing analytics in the form of advanced diagnostics, predictive or prescriptive actional insights, and computing infrastructure for use in association with manufacturing processes; electrostatic instrumentation, namely, electrostatic copying machines, gas sensors for measuring gas concentration and gas flow monitors.

Class 37

Equipment repair and maintenance services, namely, repair of power supplies, power generators, power inverters, power shelves, plasma sources, plasma generators, temperature measurement devices, temperature calibration sources, fiber optic temperature sensors, pyrometers, infrared thermometers, flare pilot monitors, thermal imagers, infrared cameras, power controllers, gas analyzers, gas sensors, rectifiers, power adapters, power converters, DC/DC converters, multi-meters, match networks, voltage amplifiers, voltmeters, electrostatic detectors and sensors, charged plate monitors, surface/volume resistance meters, ionizers, ion collecting plates, electrostatic form microscopes, voltage pulse generators, power amplifiers, battery backup units, computer hardware, and remote plasma sources equipment; building maintenance and repair, namely, industrial production facilities repair, overhaul, and maintenance; field services, namely, installation, upgrade, retrofit, inspection prior to repair, on-site calibration and repair, and on-site application support, in the nature of repair and maintenance of power supplies, power generators, power inverters, power shelves, plasma sources, plasma generators, temperature measurement devices, temperature calibration sources, fiber optic temperature sensors, pyrometers, infrared thermometers, flare pilot monitors, thermal imagers, infrared cameras, power controllers, gas analyzers, gas sensors, rectifiers, power adapters, power converters, DC/DC converters, multi-meters, match networks, voltage amplifiers, voltmeters, electrostatic detectors and sensors, charged plate monitors, surface/volume resistance meters, ionizers, ion collecting plates, electrostatic form microscopes, voltage pulse generators, power amplifiers, battery backup units, computer hardware, and remote plasma sources; refurbishment services, namely, refurbishing of pre-owned power supplies, power generators, power inverters, power shelves, plasma sources, plasma generators, temperature measurement devices, temperature calibration sources, fiber optic temperature sensors, pyrometers, infrared thermometers, flare pilot monitors, thermal imagers, infrared cameras, power controllers, gas analyzers, gas sensors, rectifiers, power adapters, power converters, DC/DC converters, multi-meters, match networks, voltage amplifiers, voltmeters, electrostatic detectors and sensors, charged plate monitors, surface/volume resistance meters, ionizers, ion collecting plates, electrostatic form microscopes, voltage pulse generators, power amplifiers, battery backup units, computer hardware, and remote plasma sources equipment; maintenance and repair of computers, namely, exchange of spare parts for computers; technical support services, namely, providing technical advice, and support services related to the repair of electronic devices, computer hardware, for use with power delivery systems, power control systems, power measurement systems, power conversion systems, power transformation systems, power refinement systems, power modification systems, and power supply systems, semiconductor and thin film plasma processes, data center, cloud computing, networking systems, and telecommunication systems, analytical instrumentation, medical equipment, industrial production systems, material and chemical processing systems, temperature measurement and control systems.

Class 42

Software as a service (SAAS) services featuring software for monitoring, controlling, and analyzing power delivery systems, power control systems, power measurement systems, power conversion systems, power transformation systems, power refinement systems, power modification systems, and power supply systems; Software as a service (SAAS) services featuring software for providing analytics in the form of advanced diagnostics, predictive or prescriptive actional insights, and computing infrastructure for use in association with manufacturing processes; maintenance and upgrading of computer software; technological consulting services, namely, providing electrical power delivery solutions for semiconductor and thin film plasma processes, data center, cloud computing, networking systems, and telecommunication systems, analytical instrumentation processes, medical equipment, industrial production systems, material and chemical processing systems, temperature measurement and control applications, electrostatic instrumentation products, and industrial gas sensors and monitors; development of energy and power management systems namely, power delivery systems, power control systems, power measurement systems, power conversion systems, power transformation systems, power refinement systems, power modification systems and power supply systems, for the delivery of power to electronic equipment of others; providing online non-downloadable software for use in monitoring, controlling, and analyzing power delivery systems, power control systems, power measurement systems, power conversion systems, power transformation systems, power refinement systems, power modification systems, and power supply systems; technical support services, namely, providing technical advice, and support services related to the repair of downloadable computer software; calibration services; enhancement and upgrade services, namely, upgrading and enhancement of computer software.
